“ Bobby was a great boss and foreman and most of all someone i looked up to. He was always joking around had a story to tell. One time I was asked to come in on a Saturday and was working on a school rooftop. I didn't have a babysitter and snuck my son on the roof began working. He didn't show up until almost 8:30am and surely wouldn't climb 30' in the air, so I felt comfortable with my 2 year old son hidden, hahaha. Here comes Bobby, he was upset with me but understood. Made me carry him back down and said get back up there and finish. He took Andrew to the store bought him junk food drinks and a toy. I looked down many times and Bobby was playing and holding him i was grateful and meant a lot to me. That's just A Saturday morning. I have hundreds of other stories or memories that will never be forgotten.
