“ I’m so sad to learn of Bob’s passing. I had the great privilege to work with him at the LRAA and he was the sunshine to many of my days there. I will continue to pray for his wife and family as they navigate life without his physical presence but wanted to share that he touched my life in many ways especially by the way he loved his wife!!!! Rest in Peace Bob!!! You truly deserve it!!!

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the brothers and sisters of Bob. I did not know him personally but from the memories shared, he was a good man who touched a lot of lives. I will not personally be able to attend the visitation but will be with you in spirit as you remember and celebrate his life. Much love to all of you. “ We have so many fond memories of Bob. He always asked us how the boys were doing when we saw him and our boys thought a lot of him! We took trips to Pigeon Forge, Gatlinburg, TN with Bob and Brenda as a Sunday School group from Dixie Valley Church of God. We will always cherish those wonderful memories. Our prayers, hugs and love to the entire family.

“ Bob was a very friendly kind man. Always asking you how you were doing. He was a man of prayer and often asked what he could pray with me about. He believed fully in Jesus and walked the walk. I was blessed to know him for a few years while attending Dixie Valley.

“ My slightly younger brother Bob was amazing in that he was the best athlete in the family! Being slightly older and stronger I could compete with him in everything except jumping, and he could dunk a basketball but I was never quite able to do that, although I could get three fingers on the rim and hang on. 😅 He could also do a standing jump over the gate that led to our backyard, but I finally did it too, after tripping over it a bunch of times and never telling anybody! 😂

I was very good at tennis, and even managed to a pro in one set, and Bob was at least as good as me. He was a better long distance runner, but I could beat him in the short runs up to a mile. All in all he was my best competition in any sport and I loved playing sports with him.

Spiritually he was as true as true can be, meaning he believed core Christianity and lived it with every fiber of his being. He discussed the more esoteric aspects but bring it back to the real every time, and I admired that about him.

We talked several times about fighting the good fight and what that meant in real terms, but we never figured that out so we did the best we know how.

I'll miss him it's only a brother can, and as his older brother I feel somewhat at fault for him not surviving longer but I did the best I knew now. I love you Bob and thank you for being my brother. ☐✝

And I miss you. 😞
