“Cousin Bobby and I were great buddies in the mid to late 40's. He lived in the West End of Louisville and I lived in Middletown. Our Mothers were sisters. Bobby and I use to visit one another during those summer months. When I was at his house we would go to Fountaine Ferry Park just about every day. Other times we'd stroll around Shawnee Golf Course and look for golf tees that weren't broken. As you can see it didn't take much to entertain us. When we entered high school we drifted apart. I believe the last time I saw Bobby was at his Mom's (Aunt Em to me) funeral service. I knew Bobby was not well and had plenty of opportunities to visit him. But like so many times, good intentions seem to fall away. Rest in Peace Cousin Bobby. I'll continue to remember those fun times we had back in our youth.
