“ I worked with Mac in the late '70's and early '80's at Sts Mary and Elizabeth Hospital in Louisville. We were close at one time, always laughing and helping each other out. He was an excellent critical care nurse. I am proud to have known him, and my sympathies to his family are sincere and heartfelt. I haven't talked to him in years. I'm do sorry now that I let that happen. I am comforted by my faith that he is in a much better place and pain free and happy again hopefully.
If you knew Mac, you were a lucky person!
