“ Robert, we only knew each other for a few years, but I can't express what you meant to our whole family. We all keep checking our phones to see that weekly message from you about our game, and when we realize it isn't coming, it feels like a punch to the stomach. You were one of those wonderful people who light up a room with your personality, positivity, and terrific sense of humor. You always had a kind word and a helping hand for everyone around you, and you always left people and situations better than you found them. All of us are going to miss our weekly gaming sessions with you. It's a small comfort to know you are sitting up there around a table with stacks of gaming books, looking through what you want to play when we can join you. In the meantime, I'm going to live my life in a manner that will make people miss me as much as we miss you.

“ I only knew Rob a very short time, but he welcomed me, a complete stranger into his gaming group like family. He was an excellent storyteller and was always kind and made me feel like I belonged in the world he brought to life but also among the circle of friends that he hosted the games for, Rob was the sort of guy that felt like a lifelong friend the moment you meet him, I will miss him dearly.

“ Rob,

There are so many things I want to say... so many stories I want to share... we had some great times from our days in private security, gaming, sushi on the town, and of course bowling, pool, darts, brews and burgers at the Stained Glass Pub... You were always one of my only friends I could truly depend on during some of the roughest times of my life. You were one person I could have a disagreement with and know you would never take it to heart or use it against me. I am truly a blessed man that God allowed me to call you friend and love you like a brother. I never imagined having to do what I am doing right now and writing a short message about a person who I could talk a lifetime about. I know this is not goodbye but only I will see you later. I promise I will always keep your memory alive and celebrate how you lived. I will forever hold your family, Angela, and Barrett in my heart and I promise you I will be here for them in any and every way I can. I love you brother and I will miss you beyond measure. God speed and God bless!!!
