“ It's been awhile and I still miss my brother in law Bob who never criticized people and always looked for the good in them. I'm glad he is with Juanita, my sister as they had many years together. I miss them both and it's not the same without them. Many days I start for the phone to call Juanita or to call Bob to ask him a question when I have a problem. I miss them still very much.

“ I'll miss Bob. He wasn't only my brother in law he was my friend. See you and my sister Juanita again when the Lord is ready for me

“ I'll miss my talks and visits with Uncle Bob. He and I would talk for hours because we shared the same views about people, politics, and so many other things. Although I'll miss him, I'm happy to know he's now with Aunt Juanita in Heaven with the Good Lord.

“ I only met Bob a few months ago. He was actually in my brother in laws immediate family. I am sorry for the family's loss. We only spoke for about an hour but it was a great hour. I had told my my sister just a couple of weeks ago me and Bob needed to get together so he could give some tips on making those great muffins he used make at Paneras years ago. Rest in peace Bob with your beloved wife that you told me loved and missed so much 🙏

“ Growing up on Lewis way, 50 years ago, Mr Wells would bring me his extra donuts, they'd be all different types of super sugary donuts, all in one box, and in the days before air conditioning, all the donuts would be like melted together into,,, one big blob of donuts, loved it!
