“ Thank you Willie for being a true an of God. A man who loved and was truly devoted to his God and his family.

To Mary and the family. You can rest knowing that God himself was standing at the door and Willie didn't have to knock. God opened the door as an excited child in anticipation, and said, Welcome Home My Child.

Your family is special to us and we will keep you all in our prayers that you will find peace during these times. Glenda and I send our love and compassion. Frank

“ So saddened by the loss of such a wonderful man. Our lives are much brighter having known him. The Bibb's have always accepted us & welcomed us to share in their frequent events, and treated us as their own. So much so that our daughter Hannah, at around 7, found out she wasn't actually a blood relative and was devastated by the news! I told her friends are even more special because you get to pick them. We're so lucky to have such a fantastic extended family, and I know that God is rejoicing today with a man that didn't just talk the talk, but walked the walk. Love to all- Ava, Scott, Jacob, & Hannah
