

Ronald Blakeman

October 20, 1942 - January 8, 2022

Ronald Blakeman, 79 of Louisville passed away Saturday January 8th, 2022 at Norton Healthcare Pavilion in downtown Louisville after a long battle with cancer.

He was born October 20, 1942 to his late parents Sergeant Glynn Blakeman and Margaret Campbell. He is survived by his loving wife of 47 years Sharon Blakeman, two children, Todd Blakeman, Allison Wright-Dye, and three grandchildren: Noah, Dallas and Aleesa. He also leaves behind his only and inseparable sibling, Richard Blakeman.

Ronnie followed in his father's footsteps and joined the army with his brother as teens. He served several years in Germany, where he made friendships that would last a lifetime. Soon after getting released, he started a career in trucking that took him all over the country. He spent the next part of 40 years behind the wheel to provide for his family spending many long nights away from home. He was a proud Teamster Union member that served him well when moving between companies. He eventually retired from Holland Freight in 2008.

He loved to golf and spent many of the remaining years doing so with his brother and buddies. He was a rock for the family and fought cancer to the bitter end. He will be missed tremendously.
