“ I remember him very well, he is very caring and I always think about him. He once gave me a harmonica and Every time I look at it I think of him. This was my granddad, and he was a good man.

“ People used to say that “first you go to Oaklawn for rehab, and then you go to weight watchers”. We were known for our food, and Ron was the reason. He always wanted to please us with the food and he truly succeeded. We loved his cooking and we loved him. Farewell my friend.
