“ As nurse manager of the Radiation Department of the Brown Cancer Center, I saw first hand what a nice and caring man Ron was.
I truly enjoyed our chats each week when he would just stop by my office and sit and talk awhile. He loved his volunteer work at the Cancer Center and felt he was "giving back".
He fought a tough battle. May he rest in peace.
A true friend to us all. Rosemary

“ Boots and Family,
No words will make you feel any better --It just HURTS. But, we all know he fought many battles and won some to be able to make some more beautiful memories with you. Later, you'll be able to remember and enjoy them. For now, all I can do is send love and prayers for Peace and Strength for you ALL--the ones he loved the most.
