“ Rosie was a dear friend for many years, we lived in same neighborhood, went to same Church, our children played together. She will surely be missed. Love to the family,

“ I have only wonderful memories from childhood, setting on the carport in the evening with mamaw Roberts visiting Ms Jupin - Yvonne and Sandy were always together and never let me join them. Susie and Mike were in and out, then Frank and I would run off to play with the kids down the street....

Sunday morning would find us all walking together to South Jefferson Baptist Church, somehow we all went at the same time - joining Ms Reeser (?) from 2 houses down.

I miss the total innocence, the chirping crickets, singing birds and chasing lighting bugs - a beautiful childhood

Rest in Peace Rosie

Sending prayers, hugs and love to Mike, Susie, Sandy and Marsha and all the family
