“ Bev,

I can't believe we have lost another brother. Scott and I are going to miss Roy so much. We loved it when he came to visit Dad and would spend much of his time at our house out in the garage with Scott. We all know how he loved the garages! I hope that you know that you still have family up North that would love to keep in touch. If there is anything we can do for you or you just need to talk, we have lots of stories about Roy. I know he is now with Troy and Ronnie and I am sure they have found a garage by now. Take care and God Bless
