“ God knows that this is really taking its toll on me, so with help from a very dear friend, whom I feel that Mom is speaking through to reach my Heart and Soul, I can only extend these words and offer this very fitting tribute to help all of our Mother's Family and Friends.

God Bless you Mom, I love you so much.

"I know it hurts, but you are strong and you get to keep all those good memories; the ones that no one else took the time to talk about or listen to.

She is in your heart. She will whisper in your ear. She will brush your cheek; and she would tell you not to be too sad.

It is difficult let them go but they are just on another plane.

You will always be her son, and she will always love you.”
