

Ruth (Wolf) Tatum Morris

May 31, 2009

Ruth (Wolf) Tatum Morris, 92 of Louisville passed away on Sunday, May 31, 2009 at the Masonic Home after a brief illness with her family by her side. She was a member of Farmdale Baptist Church and a retired employee of General Electric Appliance Park. She is survived by a son, Hubert (Goose) Tatum, a daughter, Ila Tatum Miller (Ken), grandchildren, Kathy Thompson (Bart), Lisa Tatum Wease (Mike) and Mark Tatum, great-grandchildren, Ryan Clark (Mauda) and Jenna Thompson and a great-great grandchild, Carrington Clark. She is also survived by a special friend, Brenda Breland. Funeral service will be 11:00 a.m., Wednesday at Owen Funeral Home-Jeffersontown, 9318 Taylorsville Rd. with burial in St. Stephen's Cemetery. Visitation 2-8 p.m., Tuesday. Expressions of sympathy may be made to the Youth Program at Farmdale Baptist Church or Hosparus of Louisville,

Tribute Wall

JK

“ Ila,

You and your family are in my prayers as you make the journey through this difficult period. God will be with you, walking beside you to guide you, and carrying you when your own strength is not enough. Don't be afraid to lean on him.

With deepest sympathies,

Jeanne Keeter

Jeanne Keeter - June 28, 2018 at 04:28 PM