“ This man was an amazing person. No relation to me at all, but when Cole was a baby he would pick us up in the morning, take Cole to the babysitter and I would work at Sam's Car Wash for 8 hours, after that he would take me to college for me to become a MA. He thought of me as one of his kids, and I thought of him as my adopted grandpa. I can not say enough about him, I'm truly heartbroken that he has passed, but he had one hell of a run, RIP Sam Brown, you will be missed by so many. Today has not been a good day for me or my kids.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I went to visit him at Brownsboro Park two weeks ago. He seemed to be doing well in his new home. Did he ever get to eat his fruitcake? What happened?

“ Sam Brown was THE man of the neighborhood. We lived next door for many years. You could always count on Sam. He was a very special person. No matter when you saw him you received a big smile and hug. Sad to lose this man but what a life he lived. Love to all the Brown family. ❤️

“ Sam started seeing my mom (Betty) in the mid 1970s. I lost my father when I was 8 yrs. old. So Sam was definitely someone I looked up to. I can remember going on trips to rough river, king’s island, reds baseball games and staying at the hotel and watching Tammy and Vickie throw ice off the balcony wondering what the heck kind of trouble did I get myself into. Then in high school I got to know Mike started working at Sam’s car wash. Got to ride back and forth to work with Mike in his cool orange VW bug. When me and Lisa bought our first house Sam came over helped with getting our yard in shape. Needless to say we had the best looking yard in the neighborhood. Our kids Kelly and Corey adored Sam as well. He was at every special event Lots of great times all because of you Sam Brown. Love you Sam you will definitely be missed. Lisa and I want to send our thoughts and prayers to Sam’s family. RIP Sam we will meet again and talk about old times.

“ Over 50 years ago my family became neighbors with the Browns. Sam was my best friend's dad and over time we evolved into a blended family, including a third family on the same street, That's where our story of this trio began and the strong bond still exist today. We slept on Sam Brown's living room floor most weekends, we camped in his backyard, I had breakfast with him at Jerry's on Dixie highway before going to work at Sam's car wash, I drove his Cadillac (without his permission). We celebrated events of the families together and shared in the sorrows as well. Sam was a very strong father figure presence in our lives, giving us advice and attempting to keep us on the right path. He will always hold a special place in my heart. He loved us and accepted us as family. RIP daddy Sam until we see you again ❤️ Jonna

Prayers and Blessings to the Brown Family. I met Sam Brown After moving to Louisville KY from California. We had a nice chat and told me all about Louisville and gave me directions. He was a very nice man. Little did I know a couple years later that he was my son's Grandfather. I remarried here in Louisville and my son Bryan was one of Sams Grandsons. He was always loving and kind and gave back to the community. Being a WWII Vet I know your heart and soul Sam was truly devoted to this country. You will be sorrowfully missed by all who knew you. RIP my friend. Blessings Marylea Nicolas-Bates

“ Mike and I became buddy's in the 6th grade so I was always hanging at there hose with the big dad , and the nice and pretty mother . Of having 4 cute didn't hurt . Sam never Ran me off and I even worked at 2 car washes with them And stayed over night at 3 or 4 houses they moved too. Sam was always positive with and still think about that .

My Uncle Sam was very, very special to me and I am so blessed to have had him in my life. He was the youngest of 13 children. My Mom, Beulah was the 12th (three years older) so they were very close growing up. She talked about him often and I am certain with their fun they broke some rules along the way. Uncle Sam held the Highest Ranking at our Brown Family Reunions. Nancy said it best - He was the family Patriarch! I loved to hear his stories of when he was growing up. He talked about having nothing, but always having enough of everything they needed. So thankful that I recorded some of these conversations so I can still hear his voice talking of those days long, long ago. He experienced more family loss than most could ever endure yet he continued to stay strong and push through life keeping his family close, guarded and safe. I will deeply miss our 15 second phone conversations that happened every couple weeks. "Hello Joyce, this is your Uncle Sam. Just wanted to call and tell you I love ya. Bye." Uncle Sam was so loved and respected by all who were privileged to know him. The family was so blessed to have had him for so many years. He fulfilled his goal of being the longest living Brown. He will deeply be missed. Love You Uncle Sam!!
