

Sandra Cates Berry

July 21, 1943 - March 9, 2021

Sandra Cates Berry of Louisville, passed into the loving arms of her Lord on Tuesday, March 9, 2021.

Sandra attended Atherton High School and Western KY University. In 2009, she retired as meeting and event planner for the U of L College of Business. She had previously been involved in many and varied endeavors including small business development and tourism with the Southeast Indiana Chamber of Commerce as well as being past owner of - Southern Belle Bridal in Louisville, KY and the Heritage House Bed and Breakfast in Madison, IN.

For all her accomplishments, Sandra treasured most her work for her Lord and the relationships formed throughout her life. She considered her life generously blessed by the many she was able to call "friend".

Sandra is preceded in death by her husband, Robert Berry and her parents, Arvin & Marcella Cates. She is survived by her sister, Linda Goldsmith; her daughter, Jennifer Vick Bucher; and 5 grandchildren, Logan, Hunter, Peyton, Piper and Brighton of Anthem, Arizona.

Friends and family are invited to celebrate Sandra's life with songs and readings at Hurstbourne Baptist Church, 8800 Shelbyville Rd. on Saturday, April 10, 2021 at 11:00am. Sandra will rest at the side of her beloved husband at Cave Hill Cemetery.

Sandra requests memorial donations be made to the Next Step Program at Hurstbourne Baptist Church. Floral arrangements will be re-purposed by volunteers of Flower Buds to go to local Hospice patients.

CDC Covid guidelines will be adhered to at the Memorial Service

Cemetery Details

Cave Hill Cemetery

Previous Events

Memorial Service

APR 10. 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM (ET)

Hurstborne Baptist Church
8800 Shelbyville Road
Louisville, KY