“ Mom and Dad were very close to Lloyd and Opal. I remember many visits to Louisville as a kid, and of course all of the trips to Walton, Fiskburg, Demossville, and anywhere else Lloyd's family happened to travel. We cousins played together for many years until we became prim and proper, and too old to play!
In recent years, Sandy and all the other "kids" would visit Mom and Dad (Charles and Naomi Phillips) at their home in Latonia, then later at Baptist Village in Erlanger. I was privileged to see them on several of those visits during the last two years.
Sandy would call Mom almost weekly, and after she passed in December, she continued to call me to see how I was doing. Those calls and visits will be greatly missed.

“ What a great friend...from the days of Sandy and Charles coming into Dr Johnson's with Shelby and much later spending the summer at Sandy's every week getting the house ready to sell... we had lots of good talks and laughs and memories. Over the last couple of years Sandy, Laura and I tried to have monthly luncheons. If we couldn't meet up there was always a phone call... I love you she would always say 😊

My heart has been so heavy since hearing Sandy is no longer a telephone call away which we talked so often and we always ended our visit via phone saying "I love you." A friend I will treasure in my memories forever and still cherish the praying hands she sent me a few years ago, such a generous and loving person to all and lastly her love for Jesus and deep commitment to Him. How she and her sweetheart must be rejoicing in their reunion ! Thank you, Sandy for being my special friend !

Larry, Paris & the whole Menefee family. I can't get my head around losing another one of our family members. Seems like so many lately but going back to the "elders" (all 18), now the current elders, including me & my sister (Libbys girls) we've lost so many loved ones but look what we've got to look forward to. The coming reunion will be overwhelming! Glad the last time I spoke to Sandra was to say "I love you, hope you get better soon ". Joyce White Bain . LOVE YOU ALL
