

Sara Jean (Covey) Browning

December 20, 1932 - August 28, 2021

Sara Jean (Covey) Browning, 88, joined her adoring husband in eternal life on August 28, 2021. Sara was born in Louisville, Ky. and spent most of her life active in the Church of Christ in and around her hometown. She earned degrees in Music and English from Harding University, where she fell for the gentleman who carried her bags into the building. "Sister Sara" dedicated her life to the Lord, her family, and the hundreds of students she taught at Portland Christian School. She loved music, reading, gardening, teaching piano, and though not a vain woman, she was quite particular about her hair. After her husband's passing in 2016, Sara moved to Campbellsville under the care of her loving granddaughter, Desiree.

Sara was greeted in the Heavenly Kingdom by her husband of 61 years, Delmer; grandsons Ryan and Justin McMahan and their father Chris; grandson-in-law Daniel Corona; sisters Roberta Kranz (Charles), Floy "Allene" Houtz (LaVern), and Louise Wells; and parents Atona and Ena Alice (George).

She is survived by son Derek (Jessie) Browning, children Spencer, Aubrianna, and Allie; daughter Melanie (Rickey) Elkins, children Brandon McMahan and Desiree Corona, great grandchildren Cayden, Kendall, and Noelan; and step-granddaughter Tonya (Bobby) Hoagland, children Bobby Lee and Trent.

There will be a private graveside service at Evergreen Cemetery. Expressions of sympathy and support can be made via Owen Funeral Home, 5317 Dixie Hwy.

“ Sara Jean would have been about twelve when I first knew her. She was about four years ahead of me at PCS. I was present the night she was baptized and was part of the small group that sang at her wedding. Sara’s daddy always sat on the first bench on the “ amen” corner next to Bro. Boll and Bro. Chambers at church. Lord Jesus, Come quickly.”
