“ I called this women momma half my childhood. She let me in her home with her own children for weeks sometimes months at a time. We used to ride to the lake(my family's and hers both) she introduced me to so many things as a lost child. I will forever think of you and love you. You deserved a better life madre.

“ My favorite memory of Sarah is taking her to see ET at the movies. First she was terrified by ET. Then she had to go to the bathroom. I took her and held the stall door closed. First, she started singing. Then she was in there a long time. She said it just wouldn't come out. I told her I'd give her some privacy. I thought it might help. After awhile, this little voice says, "Puppet, can you wipe me?" Success! Lol
