“ I met Sarah when I taught at SMM a couple of years ago. During a difficult year for me, she was a beacon of light. She always had a warm smile or words of encouragement to share. We bonded over a common love of literature and theatre. We reveled together in our "nerdiness"---the bookworm and the science geek. We didn't get to connect much once I left the school, but I carry fond memories of her with me. She was a shining angel on Earth; she is now a star, lighting up the heavenly sky with her loving heart.

“ My son and his best friends loved Ms. Voit. They went back to SMM last year and spent hours with her. She guided my son through his high school choice, advised him on the academic path he should take and talked to him about his voices last year when he visited as a freshman. She made a real impact on his life.

Much love, thoughts and prayers
