“ We were so very sorry to hear about Shelia. We only had met a few times, but will never forget how nice she was to us. Her smile, the sound of her laughter, and her loving nature was one that we will never forget. Our heartfelt condolences go out to her husband, as well as all her family and friends. She touched our lives in just the short time we spent with her, so we know that your loss is a cross to bare. We will keep you in our prayers and certainly will never forget this "special" lady.
