

Shelby David Taylor

January 5, 2013

Taylor, Shelby David, 58, of Louisville entered into heaven on January 5, 2013 at Audubon Hospital. He was a member of Shively Christian Church where he served as an Elder, Deacon, Sunday School Teacher and was a spiritual mentor to many youth. Shelby retired from the production department at Zoeller Pump Co. and was a former employee of Henry Vogt Machine Co./Flow Serve. He was a loving husband, father, son and uncle and will be greatly missed. Survivors include his loving wife of 14 years, Glenda Sue (Wilson) Taylor; daughter, Susan Swessel; and aunt, Betty Hoover. Funeral service will be noon Wednesday at Shively Christian Church, 1822 Kendall Lane with burial to follow in Louisville Memorial Gardens, West. Visitation will be Tuesday 1-8 at Owen Funeral Home, 5317 Dixie Highway and Wednesday 11 until the service at church. In lieu of flowers expressions of sympathy may be made to Shively Christian Church.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Shelby's passing. It was only two years ago that I lost Jack and Shelby came for his funeral. I was so very pleased to see him. I thought he looked so good at that time. We, my Husband, Craig, Roger, and Troy and their spouses and children dearly loved him. We are all grieving for him. I would love to come for his funeral but am unable to come at this time. We have missed him coming to our house for the past several years for the races, but we still love him. If you ever need a friend to talk with my phone number is 423-538-7856. Love to you and your family.

“ I will always remember Shelby as a kind-hearted, generous and thoughtful person. He was so devoted to his church family and will remain in my memory as someone I admired and had fun with during my Camden Avenue Christian Church days. My sincere condolences to Shelby's family and friends.
