

Shelby Bailey Winkle

October 29, 1992 - January 30, 2024

Shelby Bailey Winkle, 31, was born in Louisville, October 29, 1992, to Ninetta “Nina” Hudgins and Charles T. Winkle. She died unexpectedly January 31, 2024.

Shelby graduated from Spencer County High School in 2011 and was a server at Longhorn Steak House. She was an old soul and modern day hippie. Shelby loved music and was a follower of Fleetwood Mac, Stevie Nicks, the Rolling Stones and Pink. She enjoyed kayaking and spent many summer days on Salt River with her dog Sandler, named for Adam Sandler, another of her favorites. She had every one of his movies. She and her family and friends watched the movie “Sweet Home Alabama” so many times that they knew the dialogue and could quote it word for word. Shelby was a free spirit and lit up a room upon entering. She had a huge, dramatic personality, so much so that she should have been an actress. Since Halloween was one of her favorite holidays, she planned elaborate themes for her and her children and her mother was the seamstress who created many of their costumes.. Shelby was never afraid to be herself and was always there for anyone who needed a helping hand, even when she was facing personal adversity. Shelby was a good mother and loved her children with all of her heart. As a family, they traversed Beckley Creek Park often and spent much time at Kentucky Kingdom simply enjoying being together.

Left to cherish her memory is her mother, Ninetta "Nina" Hudgins, her partner, David Hester; her three children: Sadie Paige Winkle, twins Skarlett Rose and Slater Lindsey Winkle; siblings Shana Greathouse (Kirk) and Charlie Winkle (Kasey), step brothers Kasey and Korie Milliner, stepmother, Jeanine Winkle, and the love her life, Daniel Barley, and his daughter, Cheyenne. Shelby left behind many cousins, nieces, nephews, aunts and uncles, and a plethora of friends who adored her. She was predeceased by her father, Charles T. Winkle, and grandparents, Lois and Raymond Hudgins.

Visitation will be 4-7 p.m., Thursday, February 8, 2024 at Owen Funeral Home, 9318 Taylorsville Road, Louisville, KY 40299, followed by the funeral service at 7:00 p.m.
