I wish I knew what we could say to make things easier for you. It seems like just saying we are sorry is not enough. You have been such good friends to us for many years and we have been through a lot together. May you have comfort in the good memories that you will always have of your time with Sherrill.

*Love,

It seems like only yesterday that we were all going to school and church together. It has all gone by so fast. I will be thinking about you now and in the future.*
