“ Shirley came to park terrace not long after I did. She was quiet at first, but then she wasn't! She always told us what to do and where we can go if we didn't like it. She was full of sass! It was my pleasure to take care of her everyday. She was my best girl and I loved her so much. I miss her every single day!

“ She lived across the street from me and my family for decades. She was a wonderful mother to Brad and Craig. She witnessed and mentored many of us growing up in the neighborhood. The 70s was one heck of a decade but most of us survived and moved on to be successful at whatever career choice we decided upon. My sympathy to Brad and Craig. I am glad she is not suffering in a hospital. A hug to the Willett family whom were very near and dear to her.

God bless,

Debra Kelty Sine, husband , William Sine ret. Master Sergeant Pararescue and loving brother Damon F. Kelty.
