“ My heart hurts and aches so badly that I missed her services. I last spoke with her early Nov, before the holidays and then life got so busy along with work.

The memories..... I have so many of her and my mother (Janice Coates) they were life long best friends. Shirley was so good to me! She made the best tuna sandwiches, and doted over me. She lived the Lord with her whole life, heart and soul. Lived her family , her job at the airport car rentals. Her pride and joy was her boys and simply being a mom. I'll miss here forever, till we meet on the other side. I cherish my memories . Forever in our hearts, Shirley I love and miss you❤️ Give my mama a huge hug for me! Always -

“ Ms. Shirley helped shape me into the woman I am today. She was my Sunday school teacher, the one who spoke into my life every Sunday since I was a child. Later, I had the privilege of serving alongside her in children’s ministry and visiting with her in her home. Being given the honor of teaching her age group after she stepped back is something I don’t take lightly, and I only hope to make even a fraction of the impact she made on the children she loved so well. She was a gift, and her legacy of love and faith will live on.

“ Ms Shirley has always been special to me. As a Sunday School teacher, she just loved the children she taught in her class. My granddaughter was only one of those among the many over the years. They all loved her dearly ❤️ May God wrap his arms around her family. May they find comfort and peace in the arms of Jesus 🙏

“ I met Mama Shirley (as she came to be known by me) in the early 90's at Fairdale Christian Church. My kids had the pleasure of being in her classes and I had the honor of working with her. We became very close and spent lots of time together outside the church. She was one of my closest friends until life and circumstances pulled us in different directions. She was never far from my heart and we chatted over the years, always talking about getting together and it never came to fruition.

It will always be a huge burden of regret for me that I didn't make that happen. I found out she passed on last Sunday. The day that she flew away from this world, she passed through me on my way to an appointment. I felt her presence strongly and knew I had to get in touch. Imagine my heartbreak when I was too late.

*Let this be a lesson to reach out. Don't wait. Life is short and people matter. I'll love and miss you until we meet again, Mama Shirley.
Love, Lisa.*
