“ It must be a very difficult time. You have my sympathy. Sidney was also very jolly and positive when he came to Kenwood Height Christian Church

“ I have only known Sid for 4 years working at Churchill Downs, He always loved working at the track and being around the owners and trainers and they all loved and will miss him this fall meet. Myself and I know the rest of the staff at Churchill Downs will miss him during live racing. He always had good tips and knew which horse was going to win. He loved being around the patrons and staff members and always told me how much he loved working at the track.
