“ *I was very sorry to hear of Stauffer's passing.
He was my grandfather Thurmond's brother.
Please accept my sincere condolences on behalf of my grandmother Marjorie and myself.*

“ *Corky & Missy,
Though we've been seperated by miles, I have many fond memories of our family visits through the years. Know that I love you and am thinking of you.*

*Love,
Mary Anne*

“ Dear Corky and Missy and family,

I am thankful for the times I'd hear that familiar voice on the phone saying "just checking in". He was very proud of his family and talked of you often.

My prayer is for your comfort and peace.

Love, Harry Malcom

“ Jane, I am so sorry about Mal. It has been a long hard road for you. I think of you often and would love to talk with you. Give my love to Corky and Malissa. Kesha sends her love also.

Sorrowfully,
Margaret

“ To Corky, Sally, and the extended family of Mr. Stauffer P. Malcom, Sr.- I am writing to express my sincere condolences on the passing of your beloved father, father-in-law, and grandfather. I am very sorry for your loss. While I did not have the honor to know Mr. Malcom, I do know that all of us, in the core of our beings, always want our parents to be proud of us. In view of the many years of good and faithful service that Corky and Sally have provided to our country- and the honorable and loving people you are- I know that your father and father-in-law was (and is) very proud of you. On behalf of Janet and myself, as well as everyone in the United States Joint Forces Command Legal Office, we pray that the Lord will shine His light and love on Mr. Malcom and on your entire family at this difficult time. All the best and Very respectfully, Dan Donovan, Principal Deputy, U.S. Joint Forces Command Legal Office
