“ My name is Pam Spencer the receptionist from the Health Department. I am so sorry for your loss. Steve was such a joy to have in the building. Always with a smile and a joke to make my day. He loved sharing grandchildren stories. Always giving me advise on my 20 something year old car maintenance. He was loved. Gone but never forgotten. Absent from the body, and present with the Lord.

“ Debbie ,, My deepest sympathies and condolences to you and the family.. Steve was a good friend to me in high school.. he taught me a few things about cars .! We had some great time's especially when he worked at the Texaco in Shively.. we would bring our cars up there and work on them and have a few beers and plenty of laughs ! I'll never forget him..He was a good man and loving husband..
