“ My sister and I were among the first at the scene. We are from Lamar Indiana (next to Santa Claus Indiana). We tried to help him, but no one could get him out at that time. My sister, who is a nurse really felt bad because we couldn't do anything to help him! So, we did pray over him! We had to leave before the ambulance came because we were hauling horses so we had a big truck and trailer and we knew we would be in the way! There were other people waiting with him until help arrived! Trust me he didn't die alone!!!
God bless all of your family!!!!
