“ This is a memory. Steve and I were in the enclosed back patio. Steve had bought a two seater hot tub. He got in on his side, wellllll, when I got in on my side a whole lot of water became displaced. Spewed out. He did not realize that some water had to come out before I got in it. Wellllll, once the water was out, it was fine, Steve got all upset about it. I don't think he had ever two people in it before.

Another great time was, when Steve was the catcher on a softball team. I had been there, and I thought I'd just stand there just outside the fence. Wellllll, the opposite team member got up to bat, he had pop flied it up. So, I screamed out, "CATCH IT STEVE!!" He was just praying that he would catch it!! So, he caught it!! The ump called the game, and they had won the game!!! Their first win, ever. All of the sudden I became a good luck charm!! Lol. So, Steve wanted me to come to the next game. I reluctantly declined. Maybe I should have went. But, anyway, they lost that game too!! I'm no good luck charm. Lol. Steve is just awesome!! Wished he had not died so early in life.

I found his doppelganger!! Looks exactly like Steve!! I accidentally called him Steve once, his name is Billy. I've included this photo of St,errrr Billy and myself.Lol

“ Steve and Pat and Vicki,

Mark and I want to express to you our deepest and heartfelt sympathy. The pain and loss you are trying to endure is unimaginable and our words are a mere attempt to convey our hope for your endurance and, God willing, your healing through your recent and sudden tragedies.

You are in our thoughts and in our heart. And though it is hard to know why things like this happen, it is there, through our faith in God, that our comfort lies and hopes that it is His perfect plan.

May your loving memories, somehow, bring you comfort and may God bless you and keep you in peace, knowing that He will stand with you until you all meet again.
