“ I remember watching Little House on the Prairie and soaps that lasted all day with grandma while we ate peanut butter and crackers and did seek & finds as her silly birds chirped and tweeted. I loved the times she cooked those white beans and cornbread! Yum! If you ever left grandma's house hungry, it was definitely your own fault! Ha! Grandma, you always told us to shut our mouths if we didn't have anything nice to say about one another. A lesson we will all cherish. Watch over us up there! Lord knows we need it!! #RinshYourDishes #InTheZink #OverYonder. 💜 Forever in our hearts 💜

“ I remember when i was young on Friday nights me and grandma would sit on watch Knots Landing and falcon crest with a spoon of peanut butter and she would pin curl her hair with bobbi pins. This lady was the glue to hold all of us together. She will be missed everyday.

“ Rest in peace Ms SusieBell!!! I remember infrequent visits and family gatherings as a young girl when Grandma Betty would love to laugh and gossip with susiebell... that's all ive ever known here by. I remember taking double takes at time, because they looked so much alike. My deepest condolences to your loved ones & give my grams hugs & kisses for me!!!
