“ I worked with Taylor for the better part of four years. I remember him before he was a manager and watched him grow into the person he was after graduating college and becoming a manager. I remember when he bought his Jeep, and all his sneakers until we were forced to wear safety shoes. I knew that everyday Taylor was in the building we were going to have a good day. He helped me become the person I am at Amazon and I will forever be grateful for him and the time we shared.

“ Taylor was my first direct manager at Amazon. I learned a lot working with him and will forever be thankful for his leadership. He was my work brother and my Star Wars buddy. Sending prayers, love, and light to his family and friends; for whatever loss we feel, it is immeasurable to what you have lost.

“ I worked for Taylor for over two years and he was an awesome leader and person. One time when I was training for yard Marshall I was very stressed out. Taylor took the time to come over and talk to me. He told me he believed in me and that he knows I can be a leader. He also told me that everyone at work loved me. I still think about that, I've worked for a lot of people but Taylor was a special leader. We will carry on at amazon but it will not be the same. Thanks for everything Taylor and thank you to his family bringing such a great person into the world .
