“ Terri was a force to be reckoned with. Man did she push myself and her coworkers to the limit. But she did it with a smile. She did it with heart. And she did it with a heart full of love. I could always count on Terri as an employee and as a friend. Countless days of coffee, gossiping and most importantly laughing. I felt as if Terri and her family were my own. This is a loss that hits very hard. Terri's family is always in my thoughts and in my heart.

“ Once upon a time my big sister would do big sisterly things. She'd pretend to tell me a secret and then burp in my ear. Last time she did it she puked down the side of my face and I'll never not laugh at that memory.

“ Terri was my niece. She was always laughing, and trying to help others all of her life. She was also funny and knew how to make everyone feel loved and important. I’m having a hard time excepting she’s gone. We just don’t know when it’s our time to leave this world. I will miss that beautiful lady and her infectious smile. I’m asking for God’s help to send very strong Angels to earth to help her children, parents, siblings, nieces, family and friends. Because there’s a big hole in everyone’s heart by this enormous void she’s left. I love you Terri. We will see each other again when I join you and our family who’s past away, again someday in a family reunion in heaven
