“ Wow, couldn't believe the news when I heard Tom passed away. Saw him several years ago at uncle Frank,s wake in Omaha. Tom and I grew up together. He was a year older than me. He spent the weekend nights at our house during our later grade school years. I still have pictures of us dressed up as cowboys. I remember a guy from my old neighborhood, Jim Salanitro. He stoled his dad's car and we went joy riding with him a couple of times.

One night, after returning from Columbus Park(1956), I turned on the TV to the Tommy @ Jimmy Dorsey show..Just in time to see a young Elvis Presley for the first time. We were in awe and started jumping around laughfing. I remember Tom grew his hair like Elvis. Actually looked pretty good.

I know we should have kept more in touch, but I never forgot about those times.

RIP buddy, you are always in my prayers.

“ My dad was my hero! He was the most loving, kindest and humble man who touched so many people's lives. He was bigger than life. He loved his family and his faith. Heaven gained a perfectly true Angel. I know he will be watching over his loved ones. Love and miss you Daddy ❤️

“ Bo was the kind of person you can meet one time and feel like he was a life long friend. He always said wonderful things about his wife and family. And even though our hearts are broken with his passing. Heaven let's just became more jubilant.

“ I met Bo at an ACTS retreat. He was a team member, and I was a retreatant. Bo was a true Christian and he showed that with his actions. I remember Bo telling me once how he would like to have a Knights of Columbus Rosary, so I gave him one. I really wasn't supposed to do that because one is presented to a knight when they join the order and Bo was not a knight. I felt he was so serious in his faith that I justified giving him the Rosary. He later joined the order, so I guess it all turned out ok. I will miss Bo and I know he is in heaven. May he rest in peace.
