

Thomas Ray Brewer

February 20, 1937 - January 23, 2019

Thomas Ray Brewer, 81, of Louisville passed away Wednesday, January 23, 2019, at Baptist East Hospital in Louisville.

He was born in Richton, Mississippi, February 20, 1937, where he lived until his family relocated to Kentucky in the mid 1940's. A Korean War Era veteran, he retired in 1994 after 37 years from the Naval Ordnance Station as an electroplater.

He loved his family and pets very much and was extremely dedicated to them. He enjoyed western movies, World War II documentaries, and anything scientific. He was a very patient teacher, and he liked to share his knowledge, passing it down to his children and grandchildren and apprentices as the Naval Ordnance Station electroplating shop.

He was preceded in death by his parents Howell Nathaniel and Maime Maude, 2 brothers Marvin Brewer and James Brewer and 2 half-brothers Ernest Hall of Bowling Green and Fred Hall of Louisville

He is survived by his wife of 58 years, Marilyn E. (Collicutt) Brewer: 3 sons, John (Betsy); Jeff (Paula); Marc (Lori); and one daughter Sheryl Brewer Gaddie (Ray). He is also survived by 7 grandchildren: Jonathan

Brewer(Kimmy), Rebekah Brewer, Taylor Brewer, Austin Brewer, Matthew Brewer, Liam Gaddie, and Teagan Gaddie. He is also survived by his beloved nieces Jewell, Betty, and Vicky.
