“ Uncle Tom, my Godfather in this life is now in a much better place to advocate for all of us left behind. If you would say hello from me to my dad and mom and all those gone before you. Let them know I miss them dearly and we will miss you also.

Lyn and I enjoyed many lunches with you at one of Dixie Highway's finest; Buds, O'Charley's or Roosters. It was always great to hear the old stories of growing up in Fancy Farm with all your brothers and sisters. Some of my fondest childhood memories were there playing softball with the cousins, you, uncles WD and Bob at Papa's place.

Now with you gone that just leaves WD as the last man standing from the greatest generation of the Hobbs family. WD with his big old fat cigar always thought he was the best pitcher on the field, but he really didn't have anything on you or uncle Bob. We all enjoyed great fun and gained cherished memories.

Farewell Tom, my uncle, my godfather and friend.
