“ Not only did I have the honor of having Mr. Davidson for my teacher, my son did also. He was the absolute best. I have so many fond memories of him and his classes I was in. Especially when you asked him where something was at, he would say between the A and the T. I still use that saying to this day. Thanks for everything and may you rest in peace.

“ Mr. Davidson was more than a teacher. His convictions and his character were his strengths, his unwavering dedication to push us to think for ourselves and make our mark in life....will be how I remember him. A great man. My condolences to his family and close friends. He will be remembered fondly, by all of us. Love you, Mr. D.

“ The single greatest teacher I ever had. He cared so much for his "little Dorks"! Had the privilege of his teaching in 5th and 6th grades. Also got to feel the power that a 6'6 man could wield with a paddle! Rest In Peace, Big Dork! You will be and are greatly missed!

“ You instilled in me a love of reading and more importantly of learning. You were one of the biggest influences in my life. I don't think you could ever know the amount of times in the last 35 years you've actually been in my thoughts.

To his family and loved ones, I am so sorry for the loss of someone so amazing. To have had him in your life is beyond a blessing, and my heart aches for the pain you each must be suffering. He lives through so many of us. Every time I write a sentence, and i'm not sure if it's correct it's because of this great man.

May peace fill your hearts.

“ Mr Davidson stands out as the teacher who made the most lasting impression. He challenged me like no other teacher ever did...including college professors. I think of him whenever I correct my childrens' grammar or end a sentence with a preposition. I also fondly remember when someone would ask him how to spell a word. He would very seriously start spelling the word 'dictionary'. Sometimes the kids would write half of the word dictionary before they realized he wasn't actually spelling the requested word for them. What a great teacher!!

“ So sorry to hear of Mr.Davidson's passing. He taught my children in middle school. He expected a lot out of "his" kids because he knew that they could succeed. One of the best teachers they ever had, I wish there were more like him.

“ Many great and many unforgettable memories of three years of my adolescent life involve this man. A man who taught me to diagram sentences, believe in myself, and a lot of other useful things I've carried with me and will continue to carry (including the fact that "a lot" is in fact two words). My deepest condolences to his family, and please know he touched and helped shaped many lives in his time here.
