“ Todd , I refuse to speak to you past tense and I believe you can hear me..I am sorry that this has happened to you at such an early age..I can remember the good times that we shared together on the ball fields for several seasons and want you to know that I have never played with a better 2nd baseman than you..I have seen you make some truly remarkable plays during our years together..I also believe that you have moved on to the majors and that somewhere out there you are stepping out of a cornfield onto your field of dreams..Please keep short stop position open for me and I will see you out there..Love you buddy, James Martco "89-99"

“ To All The Family,
I am sure that no matter what I write will help you at this tragic time in your life. As I already know through surviving such a loss, your world feels as if is crumbling around you. I also know that on this day, 4-21-it should be Kathys special day(birthday).I know that as life changes from one second to the next, we survive, at first it comes seconds, then hours and on to days then months. We never forget or get over it , we just get through it and learn to live, sometimes only surviving without them by our sides. Just hold on to the memories, and I promise when you close your eyes you will see Todd in your heart where he will live now. And every time he passes through your heart you will see Todd with your minds special eye. And also know that Todd will pass through you often. Please know that i am here for you anytime, any hour. You have just stepped on to a roller coaster and as you move forward on this journey of a ride, you ride as one. Hang on tight!! It is a heck of a ride!! My love to you and all of yours. (((hugs)))

“ Dear Todd
We were very fortunate to have known you.God creates special people to come into our lives. You are one of them. No one could have loved and taken care of our cousin and her family like you have done. Thank you for the kindness you have shown them and the rest of our family there in Louisville. Your smile, patience and understanding is beyond compare to any other. We will miss you always. Love Always Sheila and Charlie

“ Kathy I was @ home when Theresa called me with the news. Something just came over me when she told me what happened. My heart just sank. I never had the opportunity to meet Todd but from what I've been told over the years by you and everyone else he had to be a really good man. My heart goes out to you and your family. If there is anything that I can do please don't hesitate to ask. Love you, Cynthia
