“ May we offer our sincere and heartfelt condolences to Wayne's entire family. We remember Wayne quite well from his years of playing baseball in Anderson and from his time spent playing for our AFT team in the Anderson Babe Ruth league. We recall him as a great competitor and a very pleasant, polite, and caring young man both on and off the field. We share in your sadness at his untimely passing, and we hope your memories will give you some comfort in your time of bereavement.

*In sincere sympathy,

“ I think it was probably destiny that held me back in math. I failed miserably my freshman year of high school and had to take Algebra over again my sophomore year at Anderson High School.

My first day of class, this gangly freshman kid came walking in and sat right by me. The teacher accidentally called him Chuck instead of his real name, which was Wayne.

He turned to me and whispered, "My name is Wayne." We laughed and I started calling him Chuck in jest. It stuck! The next thing I knew, everyone was calling him Chuck.

Chuck and I remained good friends throughout high school. I spent time in his Greenbriar neighborhood and he in mine down on Historic 8th. I felt closer to his friends, who were freshman, than I did my own class. It was a good group.

Chuck and I grew apart after graduation. Unfortunately life happens. I spoke to Chuck a couple of years ago via telephone and he told me he had lost his daughter in 2006 to an illness. He sounded the same, but I could tell he was very changed. I couldn't imagine the loss he felt.

I recently moved from Michigan back to Indiana and meant to contact Chuck again to try and reconnect at some point. I regret that I didn't reach out sooner.

The reason I say it was destiny above is because Chuck was always a good friend. We shared MANY laughs. Had I not failed math, I may never have met him.

To this day my math skills are severely lacking, but to compensate, I can always think of Chuck and I in class that day. When I do that, math is secondary.

“ I met Tommy Boy nearly 5 years ago at the USPS. We had a wonderful relationship all while at work, cutting up and making jokes at one another. I used to call Tommy "Elder" jokingly, as Tommy was a mere day older than I. Obviously we are all saddened to see Tommy leave us so soon. It is unfortunate the cards in life that have been dealt to him, particularly that past almost decade.

My condolences to all of the family. I apologize that I was unable to make the viewing and funeral, I was away on vacation. I know this may not ease the pain, but know that God will not put anymore on you than you can bear. Even with Tommy's passing, God is STILL in control. Be blessed and remember the good times.
