“ Veronia Dandridge,
*I wish I could have touched your face and push back your hair back from your eyes maybe even to see you smile or to hear you laugh I hope that you are no longer suffering and that you are free from this disease I guess you got your wish to Forever remain young everyday I wear this mask on my face and act like I'm not out of place truth be told every day I'm without you the pain grows deep inside I know I'll never find another Angel IQ I just want to run and hide every night I cry in silence as I face the blue wall when my eyes shut I see you looking back at me and I begin to ball you are still so beautiful You Are My Forever Young you were and always will be a beautiful mystery I'm sorry it all ended up in such a tragedy you touch my heart in a way no one else is ever going to plus I remember you I will always be true the night before I knew you. I was angry and thought I had found a song that suited as well I love you V! There is nothing I could do but pray a saved in a jail I only hope with God's Loving Grace I will be able to wipe these tears away from your face and he will sit us together again he will surely welcome us into his Heavenly place. RIP my beloved friend.
all of my love

“ My daughter loved Vee with all her heart and I know that Vee loved her too. They had a special type of friendship that two people rarely have. I only hope is that we get less of the phone calls telling us our children are gone to a better place. She didn't mean to leave early, but as God loves us he will call us home. The families that are left behind the one's that suffer, I only you are not suffering too much. Remember Vee as a girl who was vibrant because she was. May God bless all who are suffering in this tragedy. She was a good girl!
