

Vicki L. McGary

October 26, 2014

McGary, Vicki L., passed away peacefully on Sunday, October 26, 2014, with her husband and family at her side, at the age of 86. Vicki was born in Brownsville, KY on May 9, 1928. Her family moved to Louisville when she was a young girl. She was a member of Long Run Baptist Church and the Eastwood Fire Women's Auxiliary. She was an avid fan of University of Louisville athletics. She is survived by her loving husband of 44 years, Robert "Bob" McGary; two daughters, Lina Woosley and Paula Dickhart (Steve); sister, Jean Webb; three grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren. The funeral service will be held at 9:30am Wednesday in the chapel at Owen Funeral Home – Jeffersontown, 9318 Taylorsville Road; burial to follow at Louisville Memorial Gardens, West, 4400 Dixie Highway. Visitation will be from 12noon-8pm on Tuesday and after 8:30am Wednesday at the funeral home. Expressions of sympathy may be made to the WHAS Crusade for Children

“ Bob, I have been reminiscing about all of the Vicki stories through the years and each one makes me laugh out loud. My favorite is how she had me and my brother convinced that she was on Name that Tune!!! We had to watch that show no matter where we were to watch for Vicki.

It really touched me that she thought so much of children, Ellison, Samuel and especially little Nora. I am so glad she was able to meet them when I was home last. Hopefully she will help me to watch over them from heaven.

Vicki was infectious and always such a card! I can only hope to have half as much fun as she did during her lifetime. The world is definitely a sadder place without her.

*All of our love,
The Whites

“ Bobby, so sorry to hear of your loss. Charlotte sent the info to me, I know you and Vicky were close to Char and Tommy. I know this is a sad time for your family, and you and your children are in my thoughts and prayers. Hope to get to visit with you when I come to see everyone. Again, my prayers are with in this time of sorrow.
*Peace always dear cousin,
Pat Hall*

“ Bob,

My heartfelt condolences on Vicki's passing. I met her with you as you were passing through First National tower a few years ago. It was obvious that she was a very nice lady. May she rest in peace.
