

Vickie Ann (Helton) Bailey

December 21, 1957 - November 19, 2022

Vickie Ann (Helton) Bailey, 64, passed away peacefully in her sleep at home with her family Saturday November 19th, 2022.

Vickie was born on December 21, 1957, to her parents Marvin “Bud” and Patsy Tichenor. Between 2010-2020, Vickie enjoyed taking trips on her Harley all over the United States. After taking an early retirement in 2020, Vickie found a new passion for painting, restoring old furniture and selling her restored pieces at her “Second Chances by Vickie” store in Shop of Shops. When not crafting, Vickie enjoyed working in her yard and watching the hummingbirds. She also had a passion for music and finding new recipes to make.

Preceded in death by her parents, a brother, Gene Bailey, and Charles T King Jr.

Survived by her son Charles King III (Angela), grandchildren, great grandchildren, a sister, and brother. Vickie is also survived by many friends and family who she loved dearly, as well as her two cats Max and Bella.

Memorial service will be held Tuesday November 22, 2022, at 5pm at Owen Funeral Home, 5317 Dixie Highway. Memorial visitation will be before the service on Tuesday from 1:00-5:00pm at the funeral home.

Thank you to the nurses at Hosparus of Louisville who helped us along this journey.

“ I just learned of Vickie's passing. We worked together at Kindred. I learned that her step-dad was my childhood barber. And we shared a love for dogs. I am so very sorry. Such a kind soul.
