“ Victor was a good person. A very good person of strong and honorable character.
I hired him when Prolift was still known as Louisville Lift truck. I remember at the time, I thought I might have better candidates for the position, but Victor was tenacious. His fearless pursuit of the position won me over as I knew he would apply himself the same way and achieve the success we needed.
He certainly proved himself on this and so much more.
I'm am proud to have known him, to have worked with him, and to have been his friend.

Vic and I were friends for over 40 years. We worked together , laughed and even cried together. We shared things that only blood would share. He was always on my side and to this day I find it hard to see him as no longer with be. I love you and I just know you are in the arms of a wonderful god. Miss you, vic

“ I love you pop. I so wish I could be there to help lay you to rest. You were a proud man and I am sure that you are at peace now. You have instilled in me the best values of humanity and I will carry them with me until the day I join you. I am proud to carry your name and to be your son. God bless you as you arrive in his kingdom to live eternal life - amen.
