“ I don't even have the right words, but I want to honor the kind of man he was. He raised an incredible daughter, and you could see his love for his family in everything he did. I know how much your daily talks meant to both of you—especially those lunch conversations that became such a special part of your day. That kind of connection is rare and beautiful.
I'm so deeply sorry for your loss. I'm praying for peace, comfort, and strength for you in the days ahead. Please know you're not alone—I'm always here for you, no matter what.

So sorry for the family loss. His parents lived next door to me for years. And they were always a close loving family. Vincent was a good man. I sure miss all of the Smith family. We had some good times. Prayers to all the family.
