“ I just want to let you know that my prayers will continue to be with you, Mary, and your children. I am so thankful that I got to spend a little time with Wallace at our family reunions. I realized at that time what a caring and loving christian man he was. May you find comfort in knowing he is in a better place. Love to you all!

“ Dear Sister Mary & Family,
Our hearts are broken to hear of the home-going of our precious friend. How sweet the memories are of times spent worshipping the Lord with him and his family at Longfield. His heart's desire was to see Jeff saved and to know of absurdity that his son would go to heaven with him when this life was finished. I pray that if that hasn't happened yet, that God's mercies will be extended to him and give him another chance to become an old time Christian like Daddy & Mommy & that the family circle will never be broken again. I can't imagine the hurt you are suffering right now. Oh how I will miss him! I pray that God will wrap you up in his loving arms and bring to you a comfort and peace that surpasses all understanding. I pray that he will use the Man Of God that preaches Bro. Wallace's funeral to preach to the family left behind that don't know the Lord in a free pardon of sin, that he might say something that would stir up their pure mind of understanding and they could be saved so that the family circle will be united again in heaven. We are attending a revival at Claggett United Baptist and some of our family is on the altar seeking the Lord. We will meet you at Midway Church later on today. I love you all so much! You have my deepest sympathy.
