“ What a blessing for my husband, Philip T. Barnum, and I to serve as the Deeg family pastor at their church Virginia Ave. UMC in Valley Station from 2002-2011. Fred, Bonita, Laura, and Sarah praised the Lord with their beautiful music. They were supportive of whatever activities we had going on. Fred loved the potlucks. Our Christmas Cantatas directed by Charmaine Dobbins, always found the Deegs on time for practice and giving it their best. Fred never seemed to age. He had a youthful outlook on life and lifted everyone's spirits. He would do anything for you. Fred had the heart of a servant and lived out his faith in a remarkable way. Rev. P.T. Barnum just passed away on Aug. 6, 2020 so I think these two are reunited in that Heavenly City of God.

“ Fred has my heart from the get go! I was in college with Laura and we would go to her house to go through our homework and such. I was always a welcome visitor, eventually feeling more like family than a guest. Fred always welcomed me with open arms, a hug and conversation. I'm so happy that I got the chance to at least FaceTime with him and Bonita a few weeks ago. After many years, it was so good to see them and, of course, they were concerned about me and my recent transplant. What an absolute treasure he was and it was so much more than a pleasure to know him. You will be deeply missed, Fred. Much love now and always. Laura, Bonita and Sarah, I am with you now and forever...anything you need, I'm a phone call away! Love you ladies so much!

*“ Fred Deeg was a wonderful man. I loved seeing him Nita Laura and Bill. He always met me with a great big smile and hug! My family and I enjoyed hearing him sing so much, such a beautiful voice. Fred was truly the most Godly man I've ever known. Anytime I saw him he would place his hands on my face and pray for me. I could feel the power of that prayer wash over me every single time. He loved me and my family. We loved him so much. My thoughts and prayers are with the family especially Nita. I love you and have been so blessed to have you guys in my life all these years. We have some really great memories. Heaven has a wonderful new Angel. Fred will be missed, never forgotten.
Thank you for everything, Love you All. Robin Miller and family.*
