“ My prayers go out to the family, as well as the family of Joyce McGinity. Walter was a hugh part of Joyce's life the last several years. They spent everyday together, traveled together, and when he got ill, she was there caring for him. They loved each other very much. May God Bless you Joyce, and give you peace with the passing of a man you loved and cared for so much! Listen for his kind words from Heaven, he will never stop telling you how much he loved you!
