

Wanda Beatrice "Beatie" Harlan Hendricks Strader

December 6, 1931 - January 21, 2024

Wanda Beatrice (Beatie) Harlan Hendricks Strader, 92, of Louisville, Kentucky, peacefully went to be with her Heavenly Father on Sunday, January 21, 2024. Beatie was born December 6, 1931, to Guy and Ida Mae Harlan. Beatie was a cheerleader at Bevier Cleaton High School in Cleaton, Kentucky. She married her high school sweetheart, Leland Hendricks, when he returned from his Navy duty in 1948. Leland passed away in January 1965. She worked for General Electric, JCPenney, and Sears & Roebuck for many years. Beatie was gifted with natural sales talents and was most happy selling World Book encyclopedias and Electrolux vacuums for which she won many sales awards. She was raised in Martwick and Cleaton, Kentucky before moving to Central City, Kentucky. In 1968, Beatie moved to Louisville, Kentucky after she married Wallace E. Strader. Beatie was a devout Christian. She was a member of Shively Baptist Church and had a passion witnessing for Christ. Beatie had a love for writing poems, some of which had been published.

Having been born into a musical family, she was blessed with a beautiful singing voice and often sang with her sisters and brother. She was a great cook and was well known for her homemade chocolate pies.

Beatie is survived by her three daughters Linda Hendricks Jackson (Ben), Christi Strader and Tammy Strader Lutgen (Mark) as well as stepchildren Wally Strader (Kris) and Lou Anna Strader Osborne (Steve). She is also survived by grandchildren Kendall and Jake Lutgen, a step grandson Josh Strader (Ginger) and four step great-grandchildren. She is survived by a brother William Harlan (Ann) and many beloved nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husbands, Leland Hendricks and Wallace Strader and two sisters Lola Mae Harlan Durham and Anna Faye Harlan Kranzman.

The family wishes to thank the Christian Care Community Middletown caregivers, the Hosparus Comfort Care team as well as her personal caregiver Alaijah Lewis for their devoted services at this time in Beatie's life.

Visitation will be 10:30am to 12:30pm on Friday, January 26, 2024, at Owen Funeral Home-Jeffersontown, 9318 Taylorsville Road, Louisville, KY with a memorial service following. The burial will be at Rose Hill Cemetery in Central City, KY later that day.

In lieu of flowers, expressions of sympathy, or in celebration of Beatie's life, donations can be made to Christian Care Communities, 12710 Townepark Way #1000, Louisville, KY 40243, or Hospirus Health Louisville, 6200 Dutchmans Lane, Louisville, KY 40205.

“ Beatie was truly a lovely person to know. Her singing voice was as sweet as her soul. We will all deeply miss her warm smile and singing hymns, while we also rejoice she is now walking with Jesus! Such a wonderful blessing and privilege to all of us who had the opportunity to know and care for her.
