“ I had the absolute pleasure of waiting on Wayne at outback steakhouse. He and Carolyn would come in weekly to share a ribeye dinner. One day I noticed he was having a hard time at the door, so from that day until his last time eating here every week I'd walk them outside hand in hand with Mr. Arnold. I never knew just how much this meant to him until today when someone came in to tell me of his passing. I am blessed to have been apart of Mr. Arnold's life. I only wish I had gotten to know them sooner. But the time we did spend together I will forever treasure. ”

“ Wayne was my oldest brother out of a family of 5 children. He was always good to me. He loved children and was wonderful with his grandchildren, great grandchildren and my grandchildren often getting down on the floor to play with them, joining in with whatever game they were playing. They all loved him dearly and always looked forward to seeing him. Rest in peace Papaw, Great Papaw and Uncle Wayne.
